Michael Whipple of the Regional Development Center in Macon opened the second meeting of the Comprehensive Plan Committee with a review of the meeting's agenda.

Michael Whipple then presented to the group handouts identifying Issues and Opportunities to consider when developing your comprehensive plan and a list of Suggested Stakeholders to invite to participate in plan development. The group made additional suggestions of individuals and organizations to add to the list of stakeholders. Billy Edenfield and Jack Steed formed a committee to "flesh out" the stakeholders list before the next meeting.

Before adjourning, Mr. Whipple asked each attendee to think about the following and have them available for discussion at the next meeting:

1. Five top concerns about Houston County
2. Five positive aspects about Houston County
3. Five underutilized opportunities in Houston County

Mr. Whipple reminded each member that the next CPC meeting which will be held on Wednesday, November 30th at 8:30 AM at Warner Robins City Hall in the 2nd floor conference room.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
